Congratulations Team B.C
Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games

The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games (NAIG) would like to extend congratulations to Team B.C on winning the medal count with 160 medals! 63 Gold, 49 Silver, 48 Bronze.

NAIG Youth Representative Colin Starblanket sums up the spirit of the games in this quote "I believe that we all came here to celebrate our ancestry and skills in a healthy and positive way. Whether an athlete is Inuit, Métis or First Nation, each contributed to the success of these games through good sportsmanship and showcasing his/her culture. By bringing everyone together, we made something great happen, showing the world who we are as Indigenous Peoples of North America."

NAIG CEO Ron Crowe says "by just getting here is an achievement within its self and I congratulate all of the athletes who have made the dedication to Raise the Bar here in Regina and making this such an amazing experience for everyone"

Regina 2014 NAIG will host the athletes and teams from 21 regions in North America's Indigenous communities as they compete in 14 different sports. It will celebrate and share North American Indigenous cultures through a showcase of language, tradition, art, song, dance and ceremonies. The theme of Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games is "Raising the Bar" and we will do this by exhibiting youth excellence in sports and culture.
