

NORTH AMERICAN
INDIGENOUS
GAMES 2014
REGINA • SASKATCHEWAN

2014 JEUX
AUTOCHTONES
DE L'AMÉRIQUE DU NORD
REGINA • SASKATCHEWAN

News Release

April 29th, 2014

George Leach Headlines Opening Ceremony July 20th!
Tickets go on Sale April 30th

The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games (NAIG) Host Society is pleased to announce that that Juno Award winning artist George Leach will be headlining the Opening Ceremony at Mosaic Stadium on July 20th! The winner of the Aboriginal Album of the Year this March is getting a lot of attention across the continent for his new album Surrender. 11 tracks covering a vast sonic terrain from classic rock to touches of R& B and soul, Surrender is the sound of a restless musical explorer coming into his own. The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games is extremely proud to have secured such a high octane performer who not only puts on a memorable show, but an artist who is representative of Indigenous people as well.

Tickets for the Opening Ceremony will go on sale April 30th at 10am at Ticketmaster Box Offices across Canada or online via the Ticketmaster website. They will be available at the Brandt Centre Box Office during regular business hours. Get your tickets now!

Regina 2014 NAIG will host the athletes and teams from 26 regions in North America's Indigenous communities as they compete in 15 different sports. It will celebrate and share North American Indigenous cultures through a showcase of language, tradition, art, song, dance and ceremonies. The theme of the Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games is "Raising the Bar" and we will do this by exhibiting youth excellence in sports and culture.

The Games are funded by: Les Jeux sont financés par:

Regina Sub-Office: 801 - 4400 4th Avenue

Regina, SK S4T 0H8 Bus: (306)352-NAIG (6244)